Christ With Martha and Maria, by Henryk Siemiradzki, 1886.

The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which immediately precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words "a certain man." Today's reading opens with the words "a certain woman." The Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of his time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher.

Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins chapter 10—love of God (Mary) and love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus' time. Yet to love God with all one's heart and one's neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher.

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year C

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus affirms that to be a disciple we must also sit at his feet and listen to him.
St. Vincent de Paul taught that it is only in prayer that we can give selfless loving service to those who are poor.
This week, please say a special prayer each day for the poor and forgotten in our parish.

SERVERS

We also would like to go back to having Altar Servers at each Mass and are preparing a new schedule.

However, we do not have nearly enough servers to do so. We encourage any student from 3rd to 12th grade to consider being a server!

In addition, we have been in parishes where the server team was made up of families! It would be wonderful to have parish families serve as a team.

We will be flexible with training and do our best to work around your schedule. Please contact Deacon Thom.

MINISTRY TO THE HOMEBOUND, SICK & SHUT-INS

A special "Thank You" to the Eucharistic Ministers who attended the meeting last week. There is always a need for more volunteers who are called to visit the homebound or sick. If interested, please contact Deacon Thom.

ALSO, because we often do not know who would like a pastoral visit or to receive Holy Communion (either in the home, hospital or extended care facilities,) we encourage and invite you to contact the parish office to schedule a visit whether it be for one isolated time or for an extended schedule.

It is always an honor to serve in this way, so please let us know how we can serve you or your family.

Dollars for Scholars Program

- We are working hard financially to raise the pay rate of our School Staff and Teachers.
- It is shocking to know that nearly all are currently earning only about 50% of their counterparts in the nearby public school systems.
- We are directing tuition from increased enrollment to give our teachers and staff a respectable wage.

SO, any students who you can recruit to attend SVS, the tuition will go directly to wages for our staff and teachers.

As an incentive, we are offering a $1,000 CASH BONUS paid directly to you.

Flyers and applications are available in the vestibule.

We need your referrals! Thank you!

SAVE THE DATE!

St. Vincent's Parish will be hosting a

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

I should no longer say that I have neighbors to help, but that I must myself be a neighbor to others.

—Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 81

For more than 50 years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has supported organizations that combat poverty and improve the lives of people in communities across the United States. From empowering immigrants in towns along the southern border to advocating for improved housing and educational opportunities in northern and midwestern cities, CCHD-funded groups tackle a wide range of economic and social justice challenges that affect local communities in rural and urban areas.

In areas of Tennessee where coal-mining operations and landfills have caused water pollution and other environmental damage, Statewide Organizing for Community Empowerment (SOCM) works with governments and regulatory agencies to limit hazardous waste disposal in landfills and to require environmental cleanup as part of the permitting process for new business operations.

Environmental damage affects all of us, most especially low-income people who are affected by water pollution resulting from mineral extraction, lack of access to healthy foods in urban “food deserts,” and natural disasters caused by climate change. The Church teaches that “the natural environment is a collective good, the patrimony of all humanity and the responsibility of everyone” (Pope Francis, Laudato Si', no. 95). Since the release of Laudato Si' in 2015, CCHD has invested more than $4.3 million in organizations that work to protect the environment and combat pollution. When you support CCHD, you support organizations that work to protect the air, soil, and water for all the members of their communities.

To learn more about the collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development and the way CCHD upholds the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church, visit www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.
