QUESTION OF THE WEEK

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

"Why do Catholics believe that Mary was assumed into heaven, soul and body, when the Bible does not say anything about it?"

One of the most important things for Christians to remember is that the Church existed before the New Testament was written. In fact, it was early Christians who began writing down the stories about Jesus that had previously been shared only through oral tradition. In addition to the four Gospels, the early Church collected letters that were written to various newly formed Christian communities. In the fourth century, the Church compiled all of these letters and Gospels and put together into what is known today as the New Testament. The belief that God assumed Mary, body and soul, into heaven after she died has been part of the Church's tradition for centuries. Written records of the doctrine of the assumption date back to the third and fourth centuries. Even earlier than that, the Bible itself testifies to the possibility of Mary being assumed into heaven by God. The Gospel of Matthew reports that, "the tombs also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised, and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many" (27:52-53). Theologically, the assumption of Mary makes sense since she is the new Ark of the Covenant. In the Old Testament, we read that the Ark of the old Covenant was made of incorruptible wood (acacia wood covered in gold) because it housed the most important reminder of God's love for the Israelites-the Ten Commandments. However, God eventually spoke a more intimate Word than the Commandments when His Word became flesh in Jesus Christ. God has led us into a New Covenant in, with, and through His Son, as the first letter to the Corinthians and the Gospel of Luke attest to: "In the same way also He took the cup, after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood'" (1 Corinthians 11:25). Jesus Christ is the New Covenant, which makes Mary the new Ark of the Covenant, who "housed" the Word of God in her very own womb. If the old Ark was important enough to be made incorruptible, is not the Ark of the final and perfect Covenant important enough, also? By celebrating the assumption of Mary, the Church answers, "Yes!"

Pope Pius XII in the papal document, Munificent Imus Deus gives five reasons why we believe in the dogma of assumption of Mary. 1) The uninterrupted tradition about Mary's death and assumption starting from the first century. 2) The belief expressed in all the ancient liturgies of the Church. 3) The negative evidence of the absence and veneration of a tomb of Mary while most of the apostles have their tombs. 4) The possibility of bodily assumption warranted in the Old Testament in the cases of Enoch (Gen. 5:24), perhaps Moses (Deut. 34:5), and especially Elijah (II Kg. 2:1). 5) The theological reasons: a) The degeneration of the body after death is the consequence of "original sin," and Mary, as "immaculately conceived," is exempted from the post-mortem decay of the body. b) As receiver of the fullness of grace and holiness, as mother of Jesus and as co-redeemer, Mary's place is with her son Jesus, the redeemer, in the abode of holiness, heaven. Since Mary's Assumption was a reward for a holy life, this feast invites us to keep our bodies pure and holy.
