SCHOOL CLEANUP & CAMPUS BEAUTIFICATION

Thank you to all who helped with cleaning our school on Thursday and Saturday!
Your efforts are greatly appreciated and we could not have done it without you!

FINANCIAL AID

Please don't forget about the upcoming FACTS deadline of August 31, 2022 in order to receive response in September 2022. This is a firm deadline and the application must be completed in full at factsmgmt.com. Click Grant & Aid Assessment, then login. All fields must be properly completed and the $17.50 fee must be paid. In order for any form of financial aid to be awarded to any family, the FACTS application must be completed. This is a diocesan and school requirement.

As many of you know, the West Virginia Hope Scholarship has been paused. While the State Treasurer's Office is appealing the injunction, we are asking all impacted St. Vincent School Families (families who were awarded or were eligible for the WV Hope Scholarship) to please contact School Office Manager & Administrative Assistant to the Principal, Tracy Thomas to schedule an appointment with Mr. Kuhns and discuss options for moving forward.

Any other family, not impacted by the WV Hope Scholarship, seeking financial aid should complete the FACTS application as instructed above, then email Principal Jarett Kuhns at jkuhns@stvincentschool.org.

ACCEPTING NEW STUDENTS

We are accepting new students in Preschool through 8th Grade. Those interested should contact the school office for more information and to schedule an enrollment meeting.

Parish Outreach

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Gospel, Jesus says "Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy."

Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring respite and hope to the elderly who are not able to find relief from the summer heat, and you will indeed find "an inexhaustible treasure in heaven!"

"It is better to give than receive."

This Catholic lay organization leads women and men to join together to service those who are needy and suffering. If you would like to attend a meeting, call Mary Lou Kent at (304) 242-1019.

ST. VINCENT'S OUTREACH BED MINISTRY NEEDS:

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is in desperate need of volunteer truck drivers for the bed ministry.

We understand that the cost of gasoline (and everything else) is very high and you may not be able to volunteer on a regular basis.

However, if you would be willing to volunteer just one time, we would be most appreciative.

We promise that we will not pester you to continue beyond one delivery.

If you are able to help deliver beds just one time, please call Vickie Joseph at 304-280-0943.

Thank you for sharing your time to help our neighbors in need!

OLSD ALTAR SOCIETY

The OLSD Altar Society will can pickles again this year to sell at our Fish Fry's.

Volunteers' are needed for this two day event!
(There will a prep day and a canning day.)

All volunteers should contact Jim Baller at 304-559-5683 or Connie Baller at 304-559-5725.

The exact dates are not known at this time. We will have a very short lead time, hopefully one week. When prices are right, the vegetables and supplies will be purchased. We are also in need of pint jars (no quarts.) If you have any to donate contact Jim Baller for pickup or you may drop them off in the back of OLSD church.

Monetary donations will gladly be accepted and used to purchase supplies needed. We hope to keep our prices at $5 a pint and $10 a quart but due to inflation, prices are subject to change.

Your donations are greatly appreciated!

The OLSD Altar Society thanks you!

This festival will be a community-wide celebration for all ages with various food trucks and vendors, refreshments, live music, and fun games for children. Everyone is welcome!

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Why the Catholic Bible has seven books more than the Protestant Bible?

The Bible at the time of Jesus was called the Hebrew Bible. It consisted of only Old Testament books. The original was in Hebrew language. When the majority of the Jews living outside Palestine started speaking Greek, a group of seventy experts were sent to Alexandria to translate the Hebrew Bible into Greek, as requested by the emperor. The Greek translation of the Hebrew Bible was called the Septuagint Bible. But it contained 46 books. The seven additional books were 1) Judith, 2) Baruch, 3) Sirach (Ecclesiastes), 4) Wisdom, 5) Tobit, and 6) Maccabees I & 7) Maccabees II. Besides, there were some additions to Esther (Vulgate Esther 10:4-16:24) and additions to Daniel: (Prayer of Azariah and Song of the Three Holy Children, Bel and the Dragon). Since Jesus and the apostles used the Septuagint Bible, the Pharisees who finalized the official list (canon) of the Hebrew Bible books in AD 90, called the additional books in the Septuagint Bible "apocrypha" meaning not-inspired or Deuterocanonical books. But the recent discovery of fragments of three Deuterocanonical books among the Dead Sea scrolls found at Qumran proves that they were part of the ancient Hebrew Bible. Since the early Church spread mostly among Greek speaking Jews and gentiles, it accepted Septuagint as its Bible. That is why out of the approximately 340 New Testament references to the Old Testament 300 are from the Septuagint. At the Council of Rome in 382 AD, the Church finalized a canon of 46 Old Testament books (including the Deuterocanonical books) and 27 in the New Testament. This decision was ratified and confirmed by the councils at Hippo (393), Carthage (397, 419), II Nicea (787), Florence (1442), and Trent (1546). All Christians believed the 46 books of the Old Testament as inspired books until Martin Luther in the 16th century discarded the Deuterocanonical books as uninspired because they were not found in the Hebrew Bible finalized in the first century AD by the anti-Christian Jews. But they were retained at the end of the protestant bibles (King James Version) until the Edinburgh Committee of the British Foreign Bible Society excised them in 1825. The Catholic Church considers them inspired and integral part of the Bible.
