Question of the Week

Why do we observe the Second Sunday of Easter as "Divine Mercy Sunday"?

- 1) Jesus demonstrated the divine mercy of God his Heavenly Father by his preaching and healing ministry.
- 2) He instructed his apostles and followers to love others as he loved by sharing mercy, compassion and sacrificial love.
- 3) Jesus instituted the Sacrament of Reconciliation as the sacrament expressing God's mercy for repentant sinners by offering them pardon and forgiveness.
- 4) For centuries in liturgy the Church has proclaimed the mercy of God through the Word of God and the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ.
- 5) The main inspiration behind the Divine Mercy devotion are the messages received by St. Faustina during her mystical visions. On the Second Sunday of Easter of the Jubilee Year 2000, at the Mass for the canonization of the Polish nun St. Faustina Kowalska, Pope John Paul II proclaimed to the world that "from now on throughout the Church this Sunday will be called Divine Mercy Sunday." Besides, In his 1980 encyclical on God's mercy, Rich in Mercy, he developed a scriptural and doctrinal basis for our faith in the mercy of God.
- 6) The Divine Mercy Sunday is meant to strengthen our people's trust in God's mercy.
- 7) The Divine Mercy devotion fosters the virtue of trust in God's mercy that finds its fulfillment in the liturgy of Reconciliation and the Holy Eucharist.

Hearing from Acts

During the Easter season our first reading is always from the Acts of the Apostles, the second part of Luke's two volume work. Acts tells how the Holy Spirit empowered Jesus' followers to continue his mission, which Jesus had prepared them to do during his earthly ministry. We're reminded that Jesus has also shared his Spirit with us so that we can do likewise.

Prayer & Worship

Gospel Reflection & Prayer List

Background on the Gospel Reading

The Gospels tell us that Jesus appeared to the disciples on several occasions after they discovered that his tomb was empty. Part of the mystery of Jesus' Resurrection is that he appeared to his disciples not as a spirit but in bodily form. The bodily form was not one that the disciples recognized though. In John's Gospel, Mary of Magdala does not recognize that the figure standing before her is Jesus until he speaks to her. In Luke's Gospel the disciples who meet Jesus on the road to Emmaus do not recognize him until he breaks bread with them. The resurrected Jesus had a physical presence, but the disciples couldn't recognize Jesus unless he allowed them to. His resurrected body, nonetheless, showed the marks of his crucifixion.

From readings such as today's Gospel, we also see that in his resurrected body, Jesus seems to be free of physical constraints. He appears to the disciples despite the fact that the doors were locked.

Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit. In doing so, Jesus commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." During the meeting, Jesus also shows the integral connection between forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The story of Thomas illustrates our Christian experience today: We are called to believe without seeing. In fact, all Christians after the first witnesses have been called to believe without seeing. Thomas's doubt is hardly surprising; the news of Jesus' appearance was incredible to the disciples who had seen him crucified and buried. Thomas's human nature compelled him to want hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to the disciples after his death was indeed the same Jesus who had been crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to act on that desire. He is our witness that Jesus is really risen.

Our faith is based on the witness of the Church that has preceded us, beginning with Thomas and the first disciples. Through Baptism we receive the same Holy Spirit that Jesus brought to the first disciples. We are among those who are "blessed" because we believe without having seen.

Gifts from the Holy Land

at St. Vincent's this weekend, April 15th & 16th
This weekend there will be a display of beautiful handmade olivewood carvings from the Holy Land. Olivewood carvings are part of a tradition handed down from one generation to another; Christian families have worked over 2000 years to protect the Holy sites in Bethlehem, Jerusalem, Nazareth, and to spread the word of Jesus.

Our mission is to support our fellow Christians in the Holy Land by selling some of their olivewood carvings which are a major source of their income. Proceeds from the sale will benefit Christian families in Bethlehem and the Holy Land.

Please stop by our display in the vestibule of the Church.
