Quote:

Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven, exult, let Angel ministers of God exult, let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King's triumph!

Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her, ablaze with light from her eternal King, let all corners of the earth be glad, knowing an end to gloom and darkness.

Rejoice, let Mother Church also rejoice, arrayed with the lightning of his glory, let this holy building shake with joy, filled with the mighty voices of the peoples... ~Excerpt from The Exsultet

My Resurrected Lord, the glory to which You have called me is beyond my natural capacity to comprehend. I could never imagine what awaits those who fully, and without reserve, surrender their lives to You and obey every aspect of the Father's will.

Please fill me with a realization that there is so much more that I do not know. In flame my soul with a desire to quench that longing to know You more so as to share more fully in the glories of the Resurrection while here on earth and forever in Heaven.

Jesus, I trust in You.

Parish Outreach

Service Organizations, Announcements & Ministries

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

“It is better to give than receive.”

This Catholic lay organization leads women and men to join together to service those who are needy and suffering.

If you would like to attend a meeting, call Mary Lou Kent at (304) 242-1019. The next meeting is Tuesday, March 19th at 6:15 pm in the Youth Room. (We are attending Mass at 5:30 pm and meeting after Mass.)

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul - St. Mary's Conference - Elm Grove has had another busy and productive year of service in 2023! We were able to help 1,048 individuals and we made 326 home visits (a hallmark of the Society). Society members and friends, all lay volunteers, gave a reported 1,083 hours of service and an estimated 2,872 driving miles to assist the Society in its work.

We were able to give $39,627 in assistance to those we serve - anyone in need, for whatever reason, in our local community area. Our bed ministry continues to be successful! With beds donated by hotel/motel operations, college/university sources, individual donations and beds purchased directly with donations, we provided 264 beds to families in need. We were able to accomplish this with the much appreciated help of our volunteer truck drivers and their families and friends. Recently we have been blessed to have the help of local high school students who generously help us on weekends, making it easier to deliver more beds at once. This gives the students an opportunity to do service and learn about the Society.

Our local Conference currently has 14 active members and 5 associate members. We had 2 new members this year. We also have 32 non-Vincentian members, 20 of whom are new.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul's outreach depends upon volunteers and donations. The Church community has always been generous in providing both. Poor box collections, Thrift Store distributions, Grants, individual donations and member contributions make up the bulk of our financial resources. Ninety-seven percent of the funds we receive goes directly to those we serve! The remainder is used to maintain our phone line and for liability insurance and other supplies. The services we provide include food vouchers to Riesbeck's Food Market, assistance with rent and utilities, personal care and cleaning supplies, gasoline, beds and linens and other services to empower those in need.

We deeply appreciate the on-going support of our community! Be assured of the gratitude and prayers of our Society members and those we serve. We ask that you continue to be a part of our Society through your prayers and financial donations. If you feel called to join the Society, you would be most welcome! If you have questions, please call Mary Lou Kent at 304-242-1019

SVDP - A LOOK AHEAD...

By tradition, the Catholic Church dedicates each month of the year to certain devotion. The month of April is known as the Month of the Holy Spirit. To believe in the Holy Spirit is to profess that the Holy Spirit is one of the persons of the Holy Trinity, consubstantial with the Father and the Son: "with the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified." (Catechism of the Catholic Church) The Holy Spirit is the Person of Love in the life of God. He is also like a breath, an aspiration of infinite Love, from which we draw the breath of life.

On the day of Pentecost the Divine Spirit communicated such an abundance of life to the whole Church that to symbolize it "there came a sound from heaven, as of a violent wind coming, and it filled the whole house where they (the Apostles) were sitting." But it is also for us that the Holy Spirit has come, for the group in the Cenacle represented the whole Church. The Holy Spirit came to remain with the Church forever. This is the promise of Jesus Himself. He dwells in the Church permanently and unfailingly, performing in it without ceasing His action of life-giving and sanctification. He establishes the Church infallibly in the truth. It is He Who makes the Church blossom forth with a marvelous supernatural fruitfulness, for He brings to life and full fruition in Virgins, Martyrs, and Confessors those heroic virtues which are one of the marks of true sanctity.
