FEAST OF THE

TRIUMPH OF THE CROSS

SEPTEMBER 14

Everything is a reminder of the Cross.
We ourselves are made in the shape of a cross.
~ St. John Vianney

First Reading - Numbers 21:4b-9

Tired of their journey and food, the people complain against God and Moses. In response, God allows venomous serpents. After repenting, the people are told by God through Moses to look at a bronze serpent for healing.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 78:1bc-2, 34-35, 36-37, 38

Hear, my people, how even when you turned from me, I, in my mercy, forgave you and restrained my wrath. Do not forget the works of your merciful God.

Second Reading - Philippians 2:6-11

Though in the form of God, Jesus didn't strive for equality with God. He humbled himself, obeying even unto death on a cross. For this, God exalted him above all names.

Gospel Acclamation -

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your Cross you have redeemed the world.

Gospel Reading - John 3:13-17

Jesus tells Nicodemus that only he, the Son of Man, descended from and will ascend to heaven. Like Moses' serpent, he must be lifted up for people to gain eternal life. God sent him not to condemn, but to save.

WHAT DOES THE TERM "TRIUMPH OF THE CROSS" MEAN?

The "triumph of the cross" refers to the victory of Jesus Christ over sin and death through his crucifixion and resurrection. The cross, once a symbol of torture and shame, is transformed into a symbol of victory and salvation.

The Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross - Sunday, September 14th, 2025

The Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross remembers the Cross of Jesus. It has been celebrated by the Church for centuries. The feast began in the 4th century, when the True Cross was found by St. Helena, the mother of Emperor Constantine. Tradition says she found the Cross in Jerusalem, where Jesus was crucified. This discovery made a deep impression on Christians and led to honoring the Cross in a special way.

The feast celebrates the Cross because it is the symbol of our faith. The Cross shows us how much Jesus loves us. He died on the Cross to save us from our sins. In Christian tradition, the Cross is a sign of hope, even though it was an instrument of death. It reminds us that Jesus turned suffering and death into victory and life.

~ Living the Word This Week: How can I make my life a gift for others in charity?

Examine your conscience in light of the Church's social teaching and receive the Sacrament of Penance.

My exalted Lord, I turn to You in my need and with the utmost faith in Your divine power to save.

Please give me the grace I need to fully embrace every cross in my life with hope and faith in You.

Please transform my crosses so that You will be exalted through them and so that they will become an instrument of Your glory and grace.

Jesus, I trust in You.

The Transforming Power of the Cross:

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. John 3:16-17

If Jesus would never have given His life on a cross for the salvation of the world, then a cross would never have been seen in "exultation." A cross, in and of itself, is an instrument of death, a horrific and violent death. It's also an instrument of humiliation and torture. Yet, today, the Cross is seen as a holy and blessed object. We hang crosses in our homes, wear them around our neck, keep them in our pocket on the end of the rosary, and spend time in prayer before them. The Cross is now an exalted image by which we turn to God in prayer and surrender. But that is only the case because it was on a cross that we were saved and brought to eternal life.

Reflect, today, upon your own crosses. As you do, try not to see them as a burden. Instead, realize the potential within those crosses. Prayerfully look at your crosses as invitations to share in Christ's Cross. Say "Yes" to your crosses. Choose them freely. Unite them to Christ's Cross. As you do, have hope that God's glory will come forth in your life and in the world through your free embrace of them. Know that these "burdens" will be transformed and become a source of exaltation in your life by the transforming power of God.

SACRED SILENCE IN THE CHURCH

Please remember to maintain a sacred silence when you are in the main body of the church, especially before and after Mass.

HOW WE CELEBRATE THE FEAST OF THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

The Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross is celebrated with special readings, prayers, and hymns during Mass. The Gospel reading is from John 3:13-17, where Jesus speaks about being lifted up on the Cross, just like the bronze serpent in the desert. This reminds us that Jesus was lifted up to save us. The first reading often comes from the Book of Numbers, telling the story of Moses lifting the bronze serpent to heal the people. These readings help us reflect on the meaning of the Cross in our lives.

The prayers during the Mass for the Exaltation of the Holy Cross focus on God's love and mercy shown through Jesus' sacrifice. We give thanks for the salvation won for us through the Cross. The hymns also reflect the triumph of the Cross. Songs like "Lift High the Cross" celebrate the victory of Christ's death and resurrection. Through these prayers and hymns, we remember that the Cross is not a sign of defeat, but of victory and hope.

This feast is celebrated around the world. In Jerusalem, where the True Cross was found, the Exaltation of the Holy Cross is celebrated with great solemnity. In Rome and other parts of the world, churches hold special Masses and processions. Catholics come together to honor the Cross, and many venerate a relic of the True Cross if one is available. The global celebration reminds us that the Cross unites all Christians in faith.

During the liturgy, the Exaltation of the Holy Cross invites us to reflect deeply on the meaning of the Cross. The Cross is not just a historical event, but a living symbol of God's love for us. As we pray and sing, we are called to embrace the Cross in our own lives, trusting in the power of Christ's sacrifice. The liturgy helps us see the Cross not as a burden, but as the path to eternal life.
