The Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Sunday, September 21st, 2025

25TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR C

For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light.
~ Luke 16:8

First Reading - Amos 8:4-7

God condemns those who cheat and exploit the poor, vowing to remember their wrongdoings.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 113:1-2, 4-6, 7-8

Praise the Lord, who is above all and helps the needy, lifting them from low places to high positions.

Second Reading - 1 Timothy 2:1-8

Pray for everyone, including leaders, so we may live peacefully. God wants everyone saved. Christ is our mediator. I was appointed to teach this truth. Pray with pure hearts.

Gospel Acclamation - Cf. 2 Corinthians 8:9

Though our Lord Jesus Christ was rich, he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

Gospel Reading - Luke 16:1-13

Jesus tells a story about a manager who, after being fired, shrewdly reduces debts to secure future favors. He teaches that one cannot serve both God and money.

Liturgy and Minister Schedule

The Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Sunday, September 21st, 2025

The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C focuses on living with honesty and faithfulness. It calls us to put God above money and use what we have to serve others. Wealth and possessions are not bad, but they should never control us. God wants us to act with fairness, care for the poor, and live in a way that reflects His love.

This Sunday also teaches about prayer and trust. We are called to pray for everyone, including leaders, asking for peace and guidance in the world. Faithful living means being honest in small things, using our resources wisely, and choosing God first. Our choices show where our loyalty is, and we are invited to live with integrity and kindness every day.

~ Living the Word This Week: How can I make my life a gift for others in charity?

Reflect on your life as a missionary disciple and take one practical action to follow Jesus more closely.

Supernatural Prudence:

And the master commended that dishonest steward for acting prudently. "For the children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light." Luke 16:8

These lines conclude the Parable of the Dishonest Steward. At that time, there was a Palastinian custom in which agents acted on behalf of a wealthier master's money, making loans and obtaining them back with interest. It is similar to our modern banking system. The problem presented in this parable was that the steward was dishonest, skimming some of the profits for himself. As a result, the master told the steward to get his financial affairs in order because he was going to fire him. The shrewd steward, acting on the authority he still had for the moment, then went forth and reduced the debt of each of his master's debtors so as to win favor with each of them so that he could do business with them after he was fired by his master.

Lord, You are perfect Wisdom; You are Prudence Itself.

Please flood my mind and will with Your divine presence and fill me with a desire to make Your perfect will the central mission of my life.

Please help me to know how to order my days so that everything I do gives You glory and works toward the salvation of souls, beginning with my own.

Jesus, I trust in You.

Reflect, today, upon what your list would look like if you were to make it honestly. What do you spend the most time and energy doing? Even if you need to spend most of your time on the ordinary aspects of life, this becomes a holy endeavor when you do it because God is inspiring you to do so. In that case, even the ordinary becomes grace-filled and becomes a way by which you glorify God. The only way for you to know if you are using your time and energies properly is by being open to the gift of supernatural prudence. Pray for that gift today and ask our Lord to more directly order your life so that everything you do is for the glory of God and the salvation of souls.

SEPTEMBER DEVOTIONS

By tradition, the Catholic Church dedicates each month of the year to certain devotion.

The month of September is dedicated to Our Lady of Sorrows, whose memorial the Church celebrates on September 15th.

COMMEMORATIVE MASS ASSOCIATION (September)

Please pray for:
Gerald "Jerry" Crupe

SACRED SILENCE IN THE CHURCH

Please remember to maintain a sacred silence when you are in the main body of the church, especially before and after Mass.

This allows others to pray and sets a very important example for the younger members of our community who are still learning about the sacred nature of the Church.

If you need to speak with someone, simply move to the gathering space (vestibule) or outside.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Tuesdays from 10:00 am - 5:30 pm
Benediction at 5:30 pm followed by Mass

THEMES FOR THE 25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C calls us to reflect on our use of worldly resources and our responsibilities to others. The readings challenge us to live with honesty, justice, and faithfulness to God above all else.

Justice for the poor: The first reading reminds us that God cares about the poor and condemns cheating and exploitation. We are called to treat others with fairness and care for those in need.

Honesty in daily life: The Gospel warns against dishonesty and urges us to act with integrity. God sees how we handle small things, and our choices reveal our loyalty to Him.

Prioritizing God over wealth: Jesus teaches that we cannot serve both God and money. We must decide where our true allegiance lies and choose what leads to eternal life.

Prayer for all people: The second reading encourages us to pray for everyone, including leaders and those in authority. This reminds us that peace and order come from God's guidance and our prayers.

Responsible use of resources: The Gospel challenges us to use our talents and possessions wisely for God's kingdom. Earthly goods are tools for doing good and helping others.

Faithful service to God: Jesus calls us to be faithful in our responsibilities. By serving God with sincerity, we show our love and trust in Him.

The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C helps us reflect on our values and choices. It challenges us to live with faith, integrity, and care for others in all that we do.
