We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Vincent de Paul in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, established in 1895, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of Elm Grove and Wheeling. We strive to live as faith-filled disciples of Christ and in doing so, spread His Gospel message of Love, Hope, Mercy and Eternal Life.

The Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C - Sunday, September 7th, 2025

23RD SUNDAY

IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple. ~ Luke 14:33

First Reading - Wisdom 9:13-18b

Understanding God's intentions is beyond human capacity without divine wisdom and the Holy Spirit, as earthly concerns often cloud our judgment.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 90:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14 and 17

God, timeless and eternal, teaches us to value our days and seeks our return to righteousness, offering mercy and favor throughout our fleeting lives.

Second Reading - Philemon 9-10, 12-17

Paul, imprisoned, sends Onesimus back to Philemon, not as a slave but as a beloved brother, urging Philemon to welcome him as he would Paul himself.

Gospel Acclamation - Psalm 119:135

Let your face shine upon your servant; and teach me your laws.

Gospel Reading - Luke 14:25-33

Jesus teaches that following him requires prioritizing him above all personal relationships and possessions, emphasizing the need to consider the sacrifices involved, much like planning a construction or a battle.

The Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C - Sunday, September 7th, 2025

Counting the Cost of Discipleship: The 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C reminds us that following Jesus is not always easy. He asks for more than quick prayers or kind words. He calls us to put him first, even before family or friends. That can be hard to hear. But Jesus wants us to know what we're saying yes to. He wants us to think carefully and choose with open eyes. In the Gospel for the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C, Jesus says we must carry our cross. He uses examples like building a tower or planning a battle. These things take thought and care. Faith is like that too. It takes real commitment. It asks for trust and strength.

*My passionate Lord,
 You exhorted the crowds to reject every form of temptation that interfered with their love of You.
 Please fill my soul with a holy hatred for sin and all temptation so that I can reject them with passion.
 May I love You above all things and from that love, love others and even my own soul with Your Sacred Heart.
 Jesus, I trust in You.*

"Hating" So As To Love:

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple." Luke 14:25-26

Why would Jesus exhort the "great crowds" to hate their families? In fact, Jesus went even further than that. He said they must also hate their own lives. If they do not, then they cannot be His disciples. One thing that this shocking teaching did was to shake people out of their lukewarm faith. Sometimes we think of Jesus only as a kind and gentle soul Who always brightens people's days. We see images painted of the smiling Jesus Who always made people feel welcomed and loved. And though these images have truth, it is also true that one way He brightened their days was by challenging them to the core of their being to convert. And that is what Jesus does today in our Gospel.

Reflect, today, upon the passion that you must have to reject all forms of sin. This includes sin that tempts you through the mediation of your family and friends. It also includes every form of temptation that arises within you on account of your disordered human nature. This holy hatred is an act of love in that it seeks to eliminate everything that keeps you from true love. Choose, today, to be a faithful disciple of Jesus and commit yourself to reject all that seeks to interfere with this choice. Doing so will not only increase your love for God, it will also increase your love for others, and even your love for your own soul.

The month of September is dedicated to Our Lady of Sorrows, whose memorial the Church celebrates on September 15th.

SACRED SILENCE IN THE CHURCH

Please remember to maintain a sacred silence when you are in the main body of the church, especially before and after Mass.

If you need to speak with someone, simply move to the gathering space (vestibule) or outside.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Tuesdays from 10:00 am - 5:30 pm

THEMES FOR THE 23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR C

The 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C calls us to reflect on discipleship and the wisdom needed to follow Christ. The readings challenge us to choose Jesus above everything else and to rely on God for understanding.

The cost of discipleship: Jesus reminds us that following Him requires sacrifice. We must be willing to put Him above all else, even when it is difficult.

God's wisdom over human understanding: The first reading shows that God's wisdom is greater than ours. We need His guidance to make the right choices in life.

Detachment from possessions: The Gospel challenges us to let go of material things. True discipleship means not being controlled by wealth or possessions.

Carrying the cross: Jesus speaks about the need to carry our crosses. This means accepting struggles and hardships with trust in Him.

Welcoming others as family: In the second reading, Paul asks Philemon to welcome Onesimus as a brother. This reminds us that we are all part of God's family.

Counting the cost: The Gospel asks us to think carefully before following Jesus. Discipleship requires commitment and planning for the challenges ahead.

The 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C helps us reflect on what it means to truly follow Jesus. The readings invite us to trust God's wisdom and let go of anything that keeps us from Him.

NEW MUSICAL LITURGY SETTING

In September, we will be changing the music liturgy for Mass. Please be patient as I introduce and sing this new music. Same words just different melodies.

Also, you might of noticed there have been some new hymns. These hymns have been published in the newest edition of the Gathering hymnal. As the hymn and music become more familiar, please join me in singing during Mass.

"Lift your voices to the Lord!"
