The Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time - Sunday, November 16th, 2025

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

All that you see here – the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down. ~ Luke 21:6

First Reading - Malachi 3:19-20a

A fierce day will consume the arrogant and wicked, says the Lord. But those who honor Him will see the healing sun of righteousness rise.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 98:5-6, 7-8, 9

Celebrate the LORD with music, for He comes to govern the earth and its peoples with justice and fairness.

Second Reading - 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

We worked hard among you as an example to follow. We taught that one must work to eat and advised against idleness and meddling.

Gospel Acclamation - Luke 21:28

Stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand.

Gospel Reading - Luke 21:5-19

Jesus predicts the destruction of the temple and describes future trials, including wars, natural disasters, and persecution. He promises divine wisdom for their defense and assures preservation for those who endure.

The Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time - Sunday, November 16th, 2025

The 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C reminds us to live with faith and diligence. It calls us to take our daily responsibilities seriously and not fall into idleness. Our faith should be shown through steady effort and trust in God's care.

This day also points to trials we may face in life, such as hardship and persecution. Yet we are encouraged to endure with courage and hope. Faithfulness in difficult times brings strength, and those who stand firm will find salvation. The message is clear: remain faithful, keep working with purpose, and trust that God's justice will prevail.

~ Living the Word This Week: *How can I make my life a gift for others in charity?
Pray for those who are suffering persecution for their faith, at home and abroad.*

2 Sm 5: 1-3/ Ps 122: 1-2. 3-4. 4-5/ Col 1: 12-20/ Lk 23: 35-43

My courageous Lord,

You endured much suffering in life and embraced it with pure love.

Please give me the grace I need to follow You wherever You lead and to be an instrument of Your voice to a world in need.

Jesus, I trust in You.

Courage and Strength:

Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons, and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name. It will lead to your giving testimony. Remember, you are not to prepare your defense beforehand, for I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute." ~ Luke 21:12-15

It could be said that these are among the least consoling words that Jesus ever spoke. Imagine what His disciples would have thought upon hearing this. Some of them might have changed their minds about following Jesus and walked away. Why would anyone want to be seized and persecuted, or thrown into prison? Jesus even went on to say that "they will put some of you to death."

Though these words might not, at first, seem all that consoling, they were inspired words and, therefore, must be inspiring. By analogy, imagine an army general in charge of troops defending their families and homeland from hostile invaders. If that general were to say similar words to the troops, acknowledging that some of them would be captured and even killed, it would be a reality check for sure. But it would also inspire a certain courage and drive. In that moment, the soldiers would need courage to face the challenge that awaited them. Therefore, by being honest with them, the general would stir up their courage and strengthen their resolve to enter the battle.

Reflect, today, upon the fact that we are all in a battle for the salvation of souls, beginning with our own. We cannot be passive bystanders. We must move forward with much courage and strength. We must trust in the guidance given to us by our Lord. We must be open to the words He will inspire us to speak when needed. Resolve to follow our Lord into this holy battle, and He will equip you with all you need to be victorious.

THEMES FOR THE 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

The 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C calls us to reflect on our actions and the end times. The readings remind us of the importance of staying faithful and diligent.

Judgment Day: Malachi speaks of a fierce day when the arrogant and wicked will be punished. This day will bring justice and healing for those who honor God.

Hard Work: In 2 Thessalonians, Paul emphasizes the value of hard work. He warns against idleness and encourages everyone to earn their keep.

Future Trials: Jesus predicts the destruction of the temple and describes future hardships. He speaks of wars, disasters, and persecution that followers will face.

Faithfulness in Persecution: Jesus promises to give wisdom to those who are persecuted for their faith. He assures them that they will be preserved if they endure these trials.

Endurance: Endurance is highlighted in the Gospel as necessary for salvation. Those who stand firm in their faith will be saved.

The readings for the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C encourage us to remain faithful and diligent in our work and faith. They remind us that despite the trials we face, God's justice and healing will prevail.
