We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Vincent de Paul in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, established in 1895, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of Elm Grove and Wheeling. The Ascension of the Lord - Sunday, May 17th, 2026

ASCENSION OF THE LORD

And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age. ~ Matthew 28:20

First Reading - Acts 1:1-11

Luke recounts the events that occurred between Jesus' resurrection and his ascension. Jesus appeared to his disciples, gave them instructions and promises, and was taken up into heaven while they watched.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

A psalm of praise and exaltation to God as the king over all the earth. It describes God ascending to his throne amidst shouts of joy and trumpet blasts, and calls on all peoples to clap their hands and sing praises to him. The psalm also highlights God's reign over the nations and his holy throne.

Second Reading - Ephesians 1:17-23

A prayer from Paul for the Ephesian believers, asking God to give them spiritual wisdom and knowledge so that they may understand the hope and inheritance they have in Christ. Paul also emphasizes the power of God that was revealed when Christ was raised from the dead and exalted to the highest place, above all earthly powers and authorities.

Gospel Acclamation - Matthew 28:19a, 20b

Go and teach all nations, says the Lord; I am with you always, until the end of the world.

Gospel Reading - Matthew 28:16-20

The resurrected Jesus appears to his disciples on a mountain in Galilee. Jesus commissions his disciples to go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything he has commanded.

Evangelizing All Nations:

“All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” ~ Matthew 28:18-20

Reflect today on two truths. First, consider your place among the “all nations” called to become disciples. Second, reflect on your duty as a disciple to share in Christ’s mission to evangelize the world. As we celebrate our Lord’s Ascension, hear His commission spoken to you. Embrace the privilege and responsibility of His command, allowing His authority and presence to guide your life and your mission.

Lord of all power in Heaven and Earth,
You have called all people to Yourself.
I accept that call and open myself to Your gift of eternal salvation.
With my “Yes” to You, I also accept the responsibility to share in Your mission of evangelization.
Please reveal Your will to me and empower me to fulfill my duty
so that all nations will hear Your saving Word.
Jesus, I trust in You.

THEMES FOR THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD, YEAR A

The Ascension of the Lord Year A celebrates Jesus returning to heaven and His ongoing mission through His followers. The readings show His promise to be with us always and the call to share His message with the world.

Jesus' mission continues: Before ascending, Jesus tells His disciples to spread His teachings to all people. This reminds believers that His work did not end but continues through them.

The promise of the Holy Spirit: Jesus assures His followers that they will receive the Holy Spirit. This gives them strength and guidance to carry out His mission.

Jesus' authority over all: The Gospel shows Jesus as the risen Lord with authority over heaven and earth. This gives confidence that His power is greater than anything in the world.

The call to evangelize: Jesus commands His disciples to teach and baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This call extends to all believers, urging them to share the faith.

Faith in God's plan: The disciples watch Jesus ascend and are reminded to trust in God's plan. Even when they do not understand, they are called to believe and follow.

Jesus remains with us: Though Jesus ascends, He promises to be with His followers always. This reminds believers that He is still present in their lives.

The Ascension of the Lord Year A is a time to reflect on Jesus' call to share His message. It reminds believers that His mission continues and that He is always with them.
