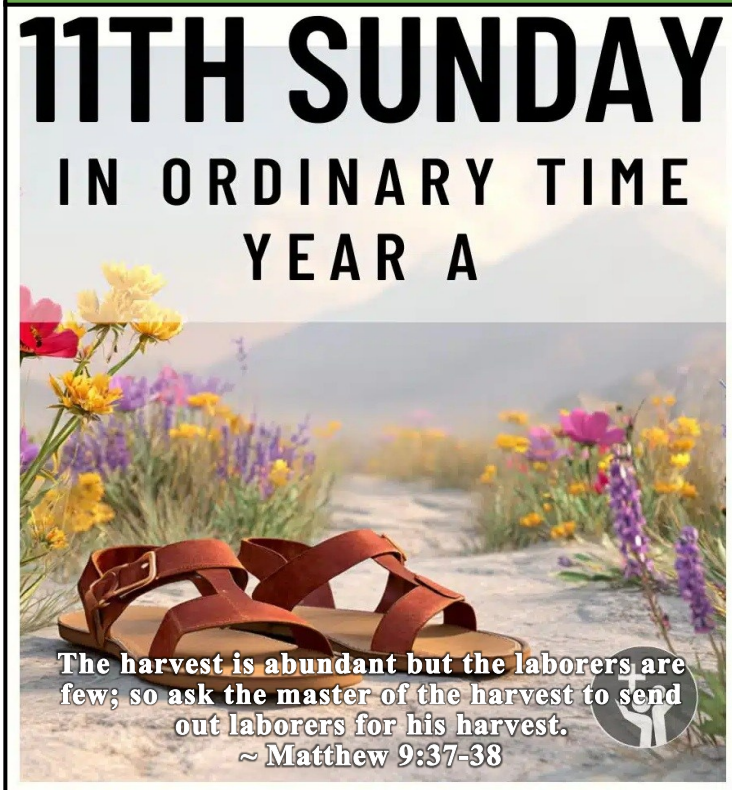
St. Vincent de Paul Parish

2244 Marshall Avenue, Wheeling, WV 26003

We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Vincent de Paul in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, established in 1895, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of Elm Grove and Wheeling. We strive to live as faith-filled disciples of Christ and in doing so, spread His Gospel message of Love, Hope, Mercy and Eternal Life.

The Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - June 14th, 2026



First Reading - Exodus 19:2-6a

The Israelites arrive at Mount Sinai, where God speaks to Moses and tells him to convey a message to the people. God reminds the Israelites of how He delivered them from slavery in Egypt and declares that if they obey His commands and keep His covenant, they will be a treasured possession and a kingdom of priests.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 100:1-2, 3, 5

This passage is a call to all people to praise and serve the Lord joyfully, recognizing that we are His people and the sheep of His flock. The verses emphasize God's goodness, His role as creator and caretaker of His people, and His eternal kindness and faithfulness.

Second Reading - Romans 5:6-11

God showed His love for humanity by sending Jesus Christ to die for our sins while we were still sinners. Through Jesus' sacrifice, we can be reconciled with God and receive the gift of eternal life.

Gospel Acclamation - Mark 1:15

The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the Gospel.

Gospel Reading - Matthew 9:36—10:8

Jesus has compassion for the crowds. He decides to send out His twelve disciples to heal the sick, raise the dead, and proclaim the good news of the kingdom of heaven. Jesus instructs His disciples to freely give what they have received, encouraging them to serve others with love and generosity.

Most loving Lord,
when You gazed upon the people of Israel's troubles and abandonment,
Your Sacred Heart was stirred with deep compassion.

Pour forth that same compassion upon me,
O Lord,
and make me an instrument of Your mercy
in the lives of others.

Jesus, I trust in You.

Driven by Divine Compassion:

At the sight of the crowds, his heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. ~ Matthew 9:36

As Jesus went "to all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness" (Matthew 9:35), He was moved with deep compassion for the crowds. The Greek verb splagchnizomai is often translated as "moved with pity" or "moved with compassion."

It appears twelve times in the Gospels—eight times describing Jesus' own compassion and four times illustrating divine mercy in parables or related contexts (the Good Samaritan, the Prodigal Son, the Unforgiving Servant, and the plea of a father for his demon-possessed son). This verb conveys not just an emotional response but a profound stirring of His entire being, compelling Him to act with divine mercy—engaging His mind, will, body, and emotions.

Reflect today on Jesus' divine compassion from two perspectives. First, gaze at His overflowing love for you. There is no way to overestimate that love. Second, allow that love to transform you so that His mercy flows through you into the lives of others. Do not hold back the love of God—let it pour forth freely and abundantly. Let His divine compassion move your entire being so that you become a true instrument of His mercy, drawing souls to Him through the power of love and all-consuming compassion.

THEMES FOR THE 11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A focuses on God's love, mercy, and call to service. The readings show how God chooses His people, saves them, and sends them out to share His message.

God's chosen people: God tells the Israelites that they are His special people. He reminds them of how He saved them and calls them to follow His ways.

Salvation through Jesus: Jesus died for sinners, not for those who were already good. His love brings forgiveness and a new life with God.

God's mercy and compassion: Jesus looks at the crowds and feels deep concern for them. He wants to help them and sends His disciples to do the same.

Mission of the disciples: Jesus gives His disciples the power to heal and help others. He wants them to share what they have received.

Call to service: Jesus tells His followers to care for people in need. He calls them to serve with love and generosity.

Obedience to God: God asks the Israelites to listen to Him and keep His covenant. Following God's ways brings blessings and a closer relationship with Him.

The 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds people that God loves them and calls them to live for Him. He saves, He forgives, and He sends His people out to help others.

FAITH / FREEDOM / FELLOWSHIP

The Spiritual Exercises are a compilation of prayers, meditations, and contemplative practices developed by St. Ignatius Loyola to help people deepen their relationship with God. For centuries the Exercises were most commonly given as a "long retreat" of about 30 days in solitude and silence.

The 19th Annotated retreat is a special form of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, which allows a person to be directed thru the Spiritual Exercises while remaining at home.

This retreat is designed for those wishing to make the Spiritual Exercises, but whose life circumstances make it impossible for them to make a full-time retreat for 30 days. The retreat will help deepen one's awareness of God's presence, grow in one's relationship with God, notice the Spirit's action in one's life and help one to integrate prayer into their daily life.

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM THE SPIRITUAL EXERCISES?

- Those who desire to grow in their relationship with God.
- Those who have a desire to live life at a deeper level.
- Those who seek to understand more clearly God's movements in their lives.
- Those who want to discern the next step in their lives.
- Those who are in transition.

WHAT WILL BE REQUIRED?

The person making the retreat commits to:

- A daily meditative period of prayer for at least one hour.
- A short period of reflection on prayer experience, taking notes of the insights one has received.
- Sharing with the director what has occurred in one's prayers.
- Meeting once per week with the director with dates coordinated with the director.

The retreat will be offered online or in person at St. Joseph Retreat Center in Wheeling, WV, from September, 2026 through May, 2027
The retreat can take about 34 weeks to complete.
A suggested stipend is $50.00 per week.
Application due in by August 31st.
Available in English and Español
