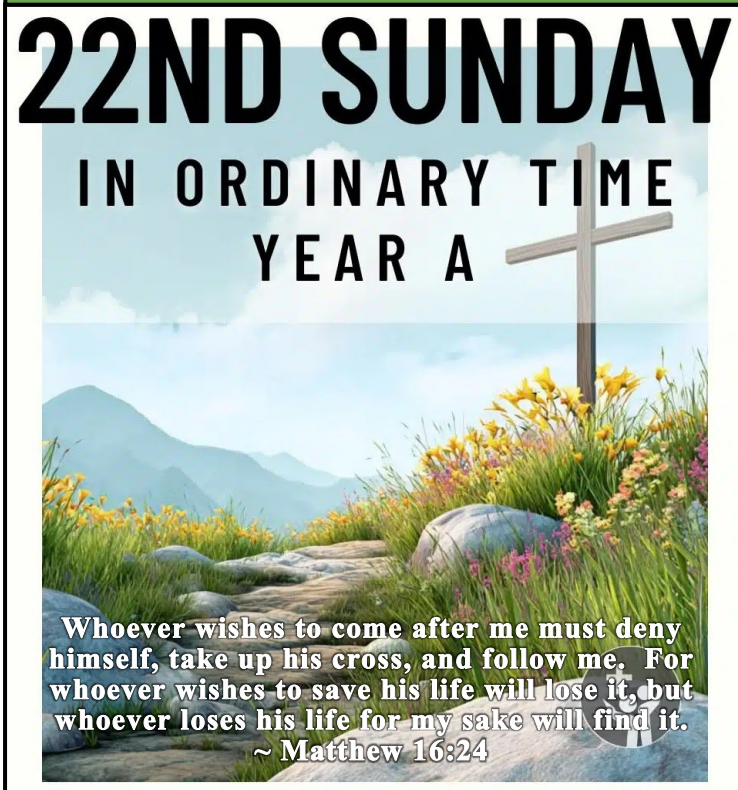
St. Vincent de Paul Parish

2244 Marshall Avenue, Wheeling, WV 26003

We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Vincent de Paul in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, established in 1895, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of Elm Grove and Wheeling. We strive to live as faith-filled disciples of Christ and in doing so, spread His Gospel message of Love, Hope, Mercy and Eternal Life.

The Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time - August 30th, 2026



First Reading - Jeremiah 20:7-9

You, O LORD, overcame me, and though I'm mocked and derided, I cannot hold back your word. It burns in my heart, and I cannot endure keeping it inside.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 63:2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9

O God, I seek you with a thirst like dry, lifeless earth. I've seen your power and glory; your kindness is greater than life. My soul clings to you, and your right hand upholds me.

Second Reading - Romans 12:1-2

I urge you to offer yourselves as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God. Don't conform to this age but renew your mind to discern what is good and pleasing to God.

Gospel Acclamation - cf. Ephesians 1:17-18

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

Gospel Reading - Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus begins to explain that He must suffer, be killed, and resurrect. Peter rebukes Him, but Jesus says that Peter's thinking like a man, not God. He tells His followers to deny themselves, take up their crosses, and follow Him. Gaining the world but losing one's soul is futile. The Son of Man will come and reward each according to their deeds.

How can we live out the lessons of these readings?

We can listen to God's call even when it is hard, trust in Him when we face suffering, and choose to follow His way instead of the world's way. Every day, we can ask how our choices reflect our faith.

Ez 33: 7-9 / Ps 95: 1-2. 6-7. 8-9 (8) / Rom 13: 8-10 / Mt 18: 15-20

My compassionate Lord,
Your firm rebuke of Peter was direct, powerful, and loving.
Rather than offering false comfort or misleading empathy,
You spoke a hard truth to awaken Peter—and all of us—to the spiritual necessity of the Cross.
Grant me the grace, dear Lord, to say "Yes" to the suffering I must face.
May I embrace it not with fear or resistance, but with a heart filled with Your love and unwavering courage.
Jesus, I trust in You.

A Stark Contrast:

"Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." ~ Matthew 16:23

This scene likely unfolds in or near Caesarea Philippi, a Gentile region steeped in pagan worship. There, at the mouth of a cave long associated with the entrance to the netherworld—believed by some pagans to be the very gate of Hades—Jesus had just questioned His disciples: "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" and then more directly, "But who do you say that I am?" (cf. Matthew 16:13–15). Peter, speaking with conviction on behalf of the Twelve, boldly proclaimed, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God" (Matthew 16:16). Jesus responded by declaring him "Peter," the rock upon which He would build His Church, promising that "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

Just moments later, Jesus issues one of the strongest rebukes recorded in the Gospels: "Get behind me, Satan!" The same Peter who had just spoken divine truth now speaks human fear and shortsightedness.

Reflect today on Peter's and Jesus' words: "God forbid, Lord!" and "Get behind me, Satan!" In this exchange, Jesus is also speaking to each of us, saying, "Never run from the Cross!" We must never flee from a selfless and sacrificial embrace of suffering, even when that suffering is unjust. God can and will transform all freely embraced suffering into a means of His eternal glory and our sanctification. With our Lord, reject the evil one's false empathy. Reject the lie that suffering is meaningless. Choose instead to lay down your life in love with Christ, and in doing so, you will rise with Him, victorious over every sin and diabolical lie, overcoming even the sufferings of this life through your free and faithful embrace.

THEMES FOR THE 22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

The 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A teaches about sacrifice, suffering, and following God's ways. The readings show that being faithful is not always easy, but it is worth it.

God's call is strong: Jeremiah feels overwhelmed by God's message, but he cannot keep it inside. Even when people mock him, he must speak the truth.

True worship requires sacrifice: Paul urges believers to offer themselves to God. This means living in a way that pleases God, not following what the world values.

Suffering is part of faith: Jesus tells His disciples that He must suffer and die. This shows that following God's plan often brings hardship, but it leads to life.

God's ways are not human ways: Peter wants to protect Jesus from suffering, but Jesus corrects him. Human thinking often focuses on comfort, but God's plan is bigger.

Carrying the cross: Jesus calls His followers to deny themselves and take up their crosses. Faith is not just about belief; it requires action and sacrifice.

The soul is worth more than the world: Jesus warns that gaining everything means nothing if a person loses their soul. Faith is about seeking what lasts forever, not just what feels good now.

God will judge each person: Jesus says that the Son of Man will come and repay people for their deeds. Faith is not just about words but about how a person lives.

The 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A challenges believers to think differently. Following Jesus means sacrifice, but it leads to true life.

If you are able, please prayerfully consider making an Extra Giving gift to help us complete these much-needed projects. Donation forms are available in the church vestibule and may be returned in the collection basket or to the parish office. You may also designate the project you wish to support. TOGETHER IN FAITH
Wheeling Vicariate
This platform will enable all parishioners and parishes within the Wheeling Vicariate to share our best practices, events, discussions, and faith-related content. It encourages engagement in online Bible studies, discussions about faith, and sharing of uplifting content. The goal is to celebrate achievements, share positive narratives, and support each other on our spiritual journeys. Let's unite together in faith!
