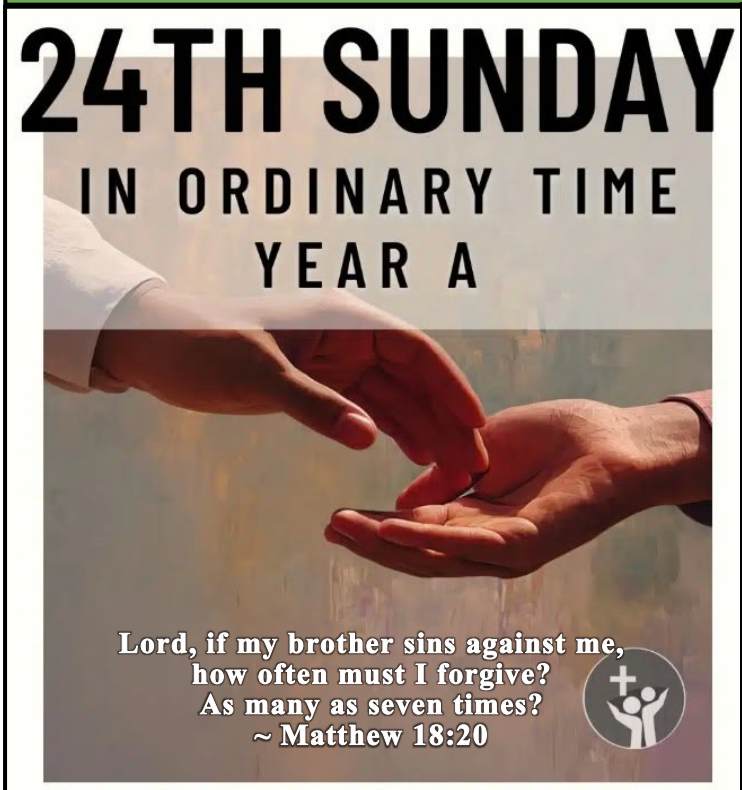
St. Vincent de Paul Parish

2244 Marshall Avenue, Wheeling, WV 26003

We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Vincent de Paul in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, established in 1895, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of Elm Grove and Wheeling. We strive to live as faith-filled disciples of Christ and in doing so, spread His Gospel message of Love, Hope, Mercy and Eternal Life.

The Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time - September 13th, 2026



First Reading - Sirach 27:30—28:7

Wrath and anger are condemned, while forgiveness of others is commended. Remember mortality and God's commandments, setting aside enmity and overlooking faults.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12

Bless the Lord for his kindness and mercy. He pardons iniquities, heals ills, and redeems lives. His compassion is vast, putting transgressions far away from those who fear him.

Second Reading - Romans 14:7-9

Whether living or dying, we belong to the Lord. Christ's death and resurrection affirm that he is Lord of both the living and the dead, and our lives should reflect that.

Gospel Acclamation - John 13:34

I give you a new commandment, says the Lord: love one another as I have loved you.

Gospel Reading - Matthew 18:21-35

Jesus teaches about forgiveness using a parable of a servant forgiven a huge debt but who then refuses to forgive a smaller debt. The master, angry at this hypocrisy, punishes him. Jesus warns that we must forgive others wholeheartedly.

What should someone do if they are struggling to forgive?

They can pray for God's help and ask Him to soften their heart. Talking to a trusted friend or priest may also help.

Most generous Lord,

You forgive more than seventy-seven times—more than seventy times seven. Your mercy is unconditional in its origin and limitless in its reach, yet it bears one condition: that I, too, show mercy to others.

Grant me, dear Lord, a heart that is merciful like Yours, one that participates in and reflects Your Divine Mercy.

May I forgive as I have been forgiven, so that the full debt of my sin may be wiped away and that others may be drawn to You through the witness of mercy in my life.

Jesus, I trust in You.

Exponential Mercy:

"That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt."
~ Matthew 18:23–25

Jesus tells this parable in response to Peter, who asked, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Peter likely thought he was being generous. But Jesus invited him to go far beyond what he imagined, responding, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times."

Reflect today on the mercy you have received from God. Has He not been patient with you, gentle with your faults, and generous with His grace? Now consider someone in your life whom you have found difficult to forgive. Does that person's offense compare to the debt God has forgiven you? Let this parable challenge you to a deeper conversion of heart, one that forgives as it has been forgiven, not seven times, but seventy-seven times, and more. Only then will the kingdom of Heaven truly reign in you.

THEMES FOR THE 24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

The 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A focuses on mercy, forgiveness, and belonging to God. The readings show that God calls people to forgive others, just as He forgives them.

Forgiving Others: The Gospel teaches that people must forgive, just as God forgives them. Holding onto anger leads to judgment, but mercy brings peace.

God's Mercy: The master in the parable shows great mercy to his servant. This reminds people that God forgives them even when they do not deserve it.

Hypocrisy in Unforgiveness: The servant who was forgiven a great debt refused to forgive a smaller one. This warns that people should not expect mercy from God if they do not show mercy to others.

Belonging to the Lord: The second reading says that whether people live or die, they belong to God. Their lives should reflect His love and mercy.

Letting Go of Anger: The first reading warns against wrath and hatred. People should remember that life is short and focus on love and forgiveness.

God's Judgment: The Gospel shows that God expects people to forgive. Those who refuse to forgive will face consequences.

Forgiveness is not always easy, but it is necessary. The readings for the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A remind people that God forgives them, so they must also forgive others.

If you are able, please prayerfully consider making an Extra Giving gift to help us complete these much-needed projects. Donation forms are available in the church vestibule and may be returned in the collection basket or to the parish office. You may also designate the project you wish to support.
