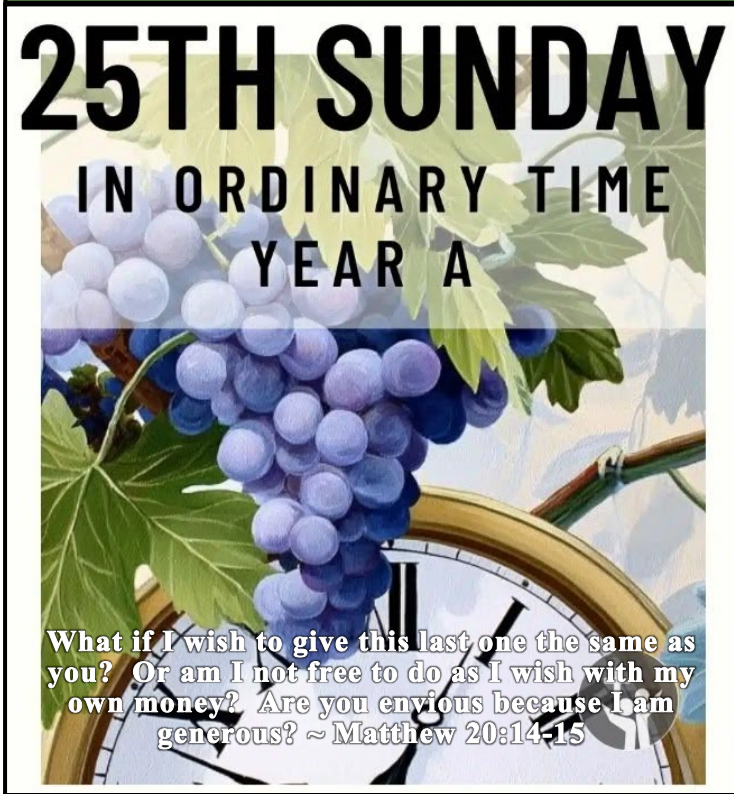
St. Vincent de Paul Parish

2244 Marshall Avenue, Wheeling, WV 26003

We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Vincent de Paul in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, established in 1895, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of Elm Grove and Wheeling. We strive to live as faith-filled disciples of Christ and in doing so, spread His Gospel message of Love, Hope, Mercy and Eternal Life.

The Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time - September 20th, 2026



First Reading - Isaiah 55:6-9

Seek God while He's close; abandon wickedness. Turn to the merciful Lord. His thoughts surpass ours, as heaven is above earth. His ways and thoughts are beyond ours.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18

Daily I'll bless and praise You, O Lord, forever. Your greatness is beyond measure. You're gracious, merciful, slow to anger, kind, and just. You're near to all who call upon You.

Second Reading - Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

In life or death, I magnify Christ. Life means fruitful labor. Caught between longing for departure to be with Christ and staying for your benefit. Live worthily of the gospel.

Gospel Acclamation - Cf. Acts 16:14b

Open our hearts, O Lord, to listen to the words of your Son.

Gospel Reading - Matthew 20:1-16a

The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who hires laborers at different times. Those who worked only an hour received the same wage as those who worked all day. The landowner's generosity teaches that God's ways are not based on human standards of fairness.

Your Turn

The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A challenges people to reflect on God's mercy and justice. He does not think as humans do, and His kindness is greater than expected. This is a reminder to trust in Him and let go of selfish ideas of fairness. Consider the readings and how they apply to your life. Have you ever struggled with feeling like God's ways are unfair? Reflect on how His generosity has touched your life.

Second Collection, September 27th - The Catholic University of America

* Next weekend, the arch diocese will take up the National Collection for the Catholic University of America. Catholic University is a national research university, in the heart of Washington D.C., with over 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students in more that 250 academic programs. By giving to the collection, you are supporting future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education. The University's various research and training initiatives support dioceses and parishes in responding to the most pressing needs of their faithful. A few examples of how the University serves the Church and nation include: The Catholic Project, an initiative that aims to heal the breach of trust many have experienced as a result of crisis in the Church; a master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management; and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers. Visit collection.catholic.edu to learn more.

Ez 18: 25-28 / Ps 25: 4-5. 6-7. 8-9 (6a) / Phil 2: 1-11 / Mt 21: 28-32

My Divine Judge,

You rule with perfect equity, justice, and mercy.
Your ways are flawless and overflow with generosity.

Please govern my soul and judge me according to Your Wisdom, so that I may receive all that You long to bestow.

Grant me the grace to remain faithful to the end, persevering and deepening my service to You for the building up of Your glorious Kingdom.

Jesus, I trust in You.

Divine Equity:

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. ~ Matthew 20:1–2

As the parable unfolds, the landowner returns to the marketplace four more times—at nine o'clock, noon, three, and finally at five—to hire additional workers. When the day's labor concluded at six o'clock, each received the same full daily wage. Was this fair? To those who had worked the entire day, it certainly did not seem so. They grumbled, "These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat" ~ (Matthew 20:12).

Reflect today on your own place among the laborers in the vineyard. Are you tempted to compare your spiritual journey with others? Do you resent the blessings others have received, or do you trust that God sees your heart and will reward you with generosity beyond measure? Rejoice that Divine Equity governs the Kingdom of Heaven; in that justice, perfected by mercy, all things are made right.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

This invitation is from Jesus, and it is personal to you! To spend just one hour each week with Him. Eucharistic Adoration takes place Tuesdays, 10:00 am - 5:30 pm. Benediction is at 5:30 pm, followed by Mass.

In the Garden of Gethsemane Jesus reminds us of this invitation: "Could you not keep watch for one hour with me?"

THEMES FOR THE 25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds us that God's ways are different from ours. He is generous and merciful, offering grace to all who seek Him.

God's Mercy is Generous: God forgives and welcomes sinners who turn to Him. His mercy is greater than human expectations.

God's Ways are Higher: People expect fairness based on effort, but God's justice is different. He gives according to His wisdom, not human standards.

Living for Christ: Paul shows that life is about serving Christ. Whether in life or death, we belong to Him.

The Call to Seek God: Isaiah urges people to turn to God while there is time. God is near to those who seek Him with sincerity.

God's Justice is Different: The landowner pays all workers the same wage, showing God's generosity. He gives freely, not based on human ideas of fairness.

Humility Before God: People should not question God's decisions. His ways are beyond human understanding.

Faithful Living: Paul encourages Christians to live in a way that honors the gospel. Actions should reflect faith in Christ.

The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A teaches that God is merciful and generous. He calls people to trust in His ways and live in faith.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR EXTRA GIVING

Our parish is blessed with many wonderful facilities that support our worship, school, and ministries. This year, several important maintenance and improvement projects are needed at St. Vincent de Paul Church, Our Lady of Seven Dolors, and St. Vincent de Paul School. While grants and generous donations have covered much of the cost, we still face a funding shortfall of over $65,000.

If you are able, please prayerfully consider making an Extra Giving gift to help us complete these much-needed projects. Donation forms are available in the church vestibule and may be returned in the collection basket or to the parish office. You may also designate the project you wish to support. Thank you for your continued generosity and for helping us care for our parish home and school for future generations.
