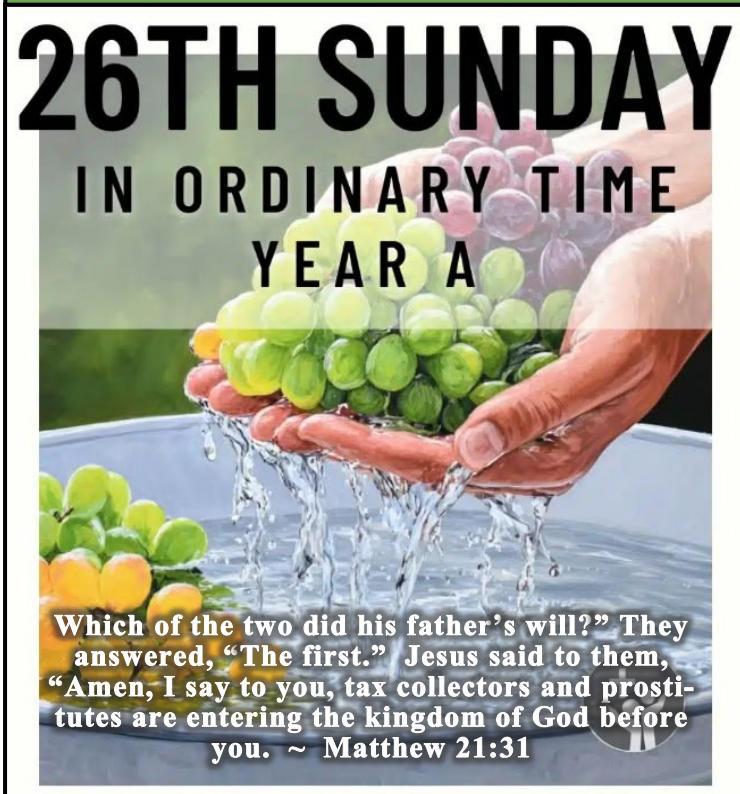
St. Vincent de Paul Parish

2244 Marshall Avenue, Wheeling, WV 26003

We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Vincent de Paul in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, established in 1895, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of Elm Grove and Wheeling. We strive to live as faith-filled disciples of Christ and in doing so, spread His Gospel message of Love, Hope, Mercy and Eternal Life.

The Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time - September 27th, 2026



First Reading - Ezekiel 18:25-28
The Lord responds to those who complain about fairness. God's ways are just. A virtuous person who turns to iniquity will face consequences, but if they repent, their life will be preserved.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9
The psalmist seeks God's guidance and asks for instruction in truth. Remembering God's compassion, the psalmist asks for mercy and guidance. The Lord, good and just, leads sinners and the humble in righteousness.

Second Reading - Philippians 2:1-11
Encouraged by Christ's love, unity, and compassion, we're urged to be of one mind, considering others above ourselves. Christ's selflessness and humility serve as an example, leading to exaltation and acknowledgment of His lordship.

Gospel Acclamation - John 10:27
My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

Gospel Reading - Matthew 21:28-32
Jesus presents a parable of two sons asked to work in a vineyard. One initially refuses but later obeys, while the other agrees but doesn't go. The lesson highlights that actions, not words, reveal true obedience and righteousness, and tax collectors and prostitutes enter God's kingdom due to genuine belief.

Your Turn
God calls everyone to follow Him with true obedience. The 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds people that actions show faith more than words. It is never too late to change and do what is right. Think about the readings and how they speak to you. Have you ever struggled to follow through on what you said?

Is 5: 1-7 / Ps 80: 9. 12. 13-14. 15-16. 19-20 / Phil 4: 6-9 / Mt 21: 33-43

My obedient Lord,
You and Your Blessed Mother always responded with wholehearted fidelity to the Father's will, both in word and in deed. Grant me the grace to imitate Your example and to share in the very obedience You lived in union with Your Mother. Root out my fallen tendencies toward selfishness, and make me generous in charity, living in full accord with and in obedience to the Father's glorious will.
Jesus, I trust in You.

Action over Words:

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not,' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir,' but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?" ~ Matthew 21:28–31

This parable must have been difficult for the chief priests and elders to hear, especially since it was clearly directed at them. In fact, after Jesus tells them a second parable, not included in today's Gospel, we read, "although they were attempting to arrest him, they feared the crowds, for they regarded him as a prophet" (Matthew 21:46). It seems they dismissed Jesus' words and His rebuke, but fear of public backlash, rather than fear of God's judgment, kept them silent for a time.

Reflect today on the first son, and humbly see yourself in him. In what ways do you find it difficult to say "Yes" to God's will right away? It is not a sin to struggle with obedience. This struggle is part of our fallen human nature. Like the first son, we must allow grace to work within us, forming our conscience and compelling us to act in accordance with God's will, especially in the areas where we resist. When we allow grace to move us beyond our initial hesitation, we grow in virtue and become more like our Blessed Mother and our Lord Jesus, who both said "Yes" to the Father and followed through completely.

THEMES FOR THE 26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

The 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A teaches about fairness, obedience, and humility. The readings show that God is just, repentance leads to life, and actions speak louder than words.

God's justice is fair: Some people think God's ways are unfair, but He judges with truth. If someone turns away from good, they face consequences, but if they turn back to good, they are saved.

Repentance leads to life: A person who sins can still change. God does not hold the past against those who truly repent.

Actions matter more than words: In the Gospel, the son who obeys in the end is the one who does right. Saying yes to God means nothing without real obedience.

Humility brings honor: Jesus humbled Himself completely, and God raised Him up. True greatness comes from serving others.

Obedience shows true belief: Those who truly believe in God follow His ways. The tax collectors and sinners changed their lives, showing real faith.

Unity in Christ: Paul calls for unity among believers. When people put others first, they live as Jesus taught.

The 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds people to follow God with true obedience. It shows that real faith is not just words but actions.
