St. Vincent de Paul Parish

2244 Marshall Avenue, Wheeling, WV 26003

We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Vincent de Paul in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, established in 1895, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of Elm Grove and Wheeling. We strive to live as faith-filled disciples of Christ and in doing so, spread His Gospel message of Love, Hope, Mercy and Eternal Life.

The Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 11th, 2026

First Reading - Isaiah 25:6-10a

The LORD promises to provide abundantly for all and remove obstacles that blind nations. He will end death, comfort his people, and eradicate their disgrace. All will recognize and rejoice in God's salvation.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6

The LORD, as a caring shepherd, provides and protects. He leads in safety, offers comfort in danger, and honors in the presence of enemies. With the LORD's enduring kindness, one finds eternal refuge in His house.

Second Reading - Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Paul expresses contentment in all situations, whether in scarcity or plenty. Through Christ's strength, he remains resilient. He acknowledges the support of others and assures God's provision for their needs, praising God eternally.

Gospel Acclamation - Cf. Ephesians 1:17-18

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

Gospel Reading - Matthew 22:1-14

Jesus shares a parable about a king who hosts a wedding feast for his son. Initially, invited guests refuse the invitation. After facing consequences, the king invites all, but emphasizes the importance of being appropriately prepared. Few truly qualify.

Your Turn

The 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A invites everyone to reflect on God's call. The readings show His generosity and the importance of being ready. Think about how you have responded to God's invitation in your own life. Have you accepted it with faith and action, or have you ignored it?

My King and Bridegroom of the Church, the Mass is Your Wedding Feast and a foretaste of the eternal Banquet of Heaven. You invite us to this Feast not only in body, but with hearts recollected, minds engaged, and souls prepared by grace.

May I always respond to Your invitation with faith and love, and celebrate the Holy Mass with all my heart, clothed in the garment of sanctifying grace.

Jesus, I trust in You.

The Wedding Feast of the Liturgy:

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come." Matthew 22:1–3

Today's parable is part of Jesus' final teachings in Jerusalem during Holy Week. It continues His direct confrontation with the religious leaders of Israel—specifically, the chief priests and elders. Through this story, Jesus unveils the mystery of the Kingdom, the tragedy of Israel's rejection, and the universal call to salvation.

The central theme of this parable is found in the opening line: "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son." In this parable, the king is God the Father, the Son is Jesus, and the Wedding Feast represents the Messianic Banquet—a celebration of the eternal joy of union with God. Today, the Holy Mass is a real participation in that Messianic Banquet and a foretaste of its fullness to come.

Reflect today on the Mass as the true Wedding Feast of the Lamb. Do you approach this sacred celebration with joyful reverence, spiritual preparation, and genuine love for the Bridegroom? Strive to make your presence at Mass much more than physical; let it be the expression of a soul properly clothed, joyfully responding to the King's invitation. May our worthy participation in the Eucharist be a foretaste of the eternal banquet prepared for those who are invited and respond with all their hearts.

In the Garden of Gethsemane Jesus reminds us of this invitation: "Could you not keep watch for one hour with me?"

THEMES FOR THE 28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

The 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A speaks about God's generosity and the need to accept His invitation. The readings show that God provides for His people, but they must respond with faith and preparation.

God's Generosity: God offers abundance to all people. He removes pain and brings joy to those who trust in Him.

Invitation to Salvation: God calls everyone to share in His blessings. Some reject His call, but others accept and find new life.

Faith in All Circumstances: Paul teaches that faith gives strength in both good times and hard times. Trust in Christ helps people remain steady.

Judgment and Readiness: The parable warns that not all who are invited will be ready. Being prepared means living according to God's ways.

Universal Call to Holiness: The king invites all, showing that God welcomes everyone. Each person has a chance to follow Him.

The Cost of Rejection: Those who refuse God's invitation face consequences. Turning away from Him leads to loss.

God invites all people to His feast, but they must respond with faith and readiness. The 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds everyone to accept God's gifts with open hearts and willing lives.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday, a day when we, together with all the Catholics around the globe, unite in prayer and generosity for the Church's missionary work.

This year's theme, One in Christ, United in Mission, chosen by Pope Leo XIV, invites us to rediscover the profound unity we share in Christ through baptism and how our baptismal missionary identity overflows into the mission of the Church to bring all creatures into communion with God and us.

The beautification of Archbishop Fulton sheen on September 24 was a great gift to the Church in the United States. While many knew him for his TV presence, books, and charismatic eloquence, he repeatedly said, "My greatest love has always been for the missions of the Church."

This week, we invite you to pray the World Mission Rosary, promoted by Blessed Fulton sheen. Each decade represents a region of the world, reminding us that we are one family in mission.

We can surely count on his intercession for World Mission Sunday 2026. Blessed Fulton sheen, pray for us!
