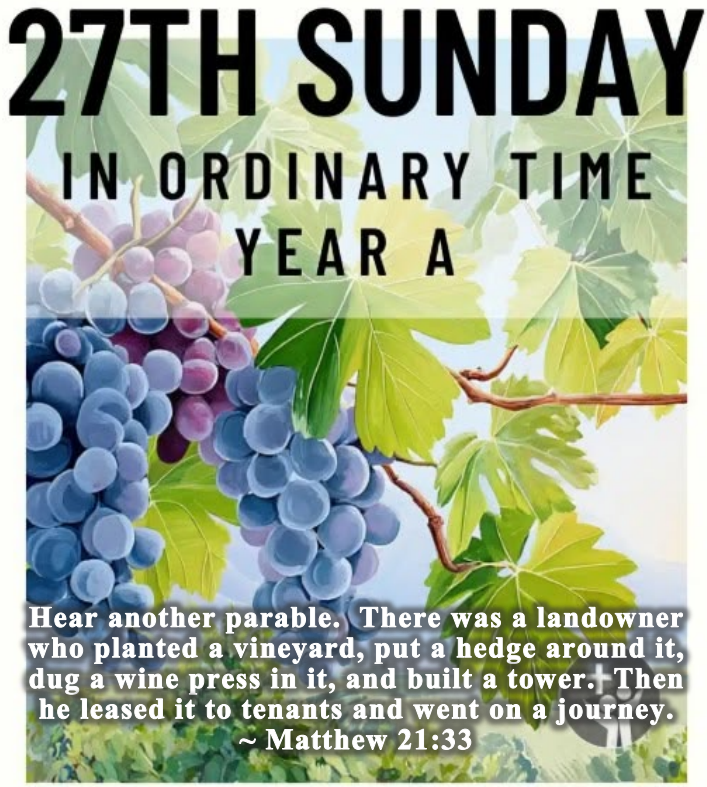
St. Vincent de Paul Parish

2244 Marshall Avenue, Wheeling, WV 26003

We are the Roman Catholic Parish of St. Vincent de Paul in the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, established in 1895, embracing the spiritual and corporal needs of Elm Grove and Wheeling. We strive to live as faith-filled disciples of Christ and in doing so, spread His Gospel message of Love, Hope, Mercy and Eternal Life.

The Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 4th, 2026



First Reading - Isaiah 5:1-7

A friend cultivates a vineyard with great care but gets wild grapes. He questions what more he could have done and decides to abandon the vineyard, letting it turn into a wasteland. This vineyard is an allegory for the house of Israel, where expected justice turns to chaos.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 80:9, 12, 13-14, 15-16, 19-20

God planted a vine from Egypt, cleared the land, and let it flourish. Then, its walls were broken, making it vulnerable to beasts and trespassers. A plea is made for divine care and restoration so that the vine, representing Israel, will thrive and its people will be saved.

Second Reading - Philippians 4:6-9

Don't worry, but instead bring your concerns to God through prayer. When you do, God's peace will guard your heart and mind. Focus on things that are true, honorable, just, pure, and lovely. By following this guidance and emulating good examples, you'll find peace.

Gospel Acclamation - Cf. John 15:16

I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord, to go and bear fruit that will remain.

Gospel Reading - Matthew 21:33-43

A landowner leases a vineyard but the tenants mistreat his servants and kill his son. When asked, the elders agree that the owner will evict these tenants and find new ones. Jesus warns that those who reject the cornerstone will lose the kingdom of God.

Your Turn

God gives many chances to do what is right. The 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A reminds us that He wants us to follow Him and live justly. He calls us to trust Him, listen to His word, and bear good fruit in our lives.

My glorious King, You have called us to Yourself and made us members of Your Kingdom. You have also sent us forth to labor in the vineyard of Your Church and help draw many souls to Your Sacred Heart. Please reveal to me the role and mission You have entrusted to me. May I listen attentively to Your gentle commands and respond with a heart full of generosity and faith. May Your Church—of which I am a living member—continue to bear abundant fruit through the grace You pour forth. Jesus, I trust in You.

The New Vineyard of Grace:

Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit." Matthew 21:42–43

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants is rich in Old Testament imagery. The image of the vineyard comes from the Prophet Isaiah (Isaiah 5:1–7) and represents the people of Israel. The landowner is God, who, from the time of Abraham, has lovingly and intentionally cultivated His people. The hedge, tower, and winepress symbolize God's providential care, protection, and the structure He established for their spiritual growth, respectively.

Reflect today on how to make this parable your personal calling. The Kingdom of God has been partly entrusted to you to be one who will labor for the salvation of souls—"people that will produce its fruit." The work of evangelization is an ongoing and urgent mission. In what ways is God calling you to work in His Divine Vineyard? Is it through faithful prayer, by which the vines of grace are pruned and nourished? Is it through the work of harvesting, where you draw others to Christ by your words, your witness, and your works of love? Is it through quiet perseverance in suffering, offered in union with the Crucified One? However God calls you, do not delay. Receive His trust with humility, and labor with joy. The vineyard is His, but the fruit depends, in part, on you.

THEMES FOR THE 27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

The readings for the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A show God's care and expectations. They also show what happens when people reject His ways.

God's Care and Patience: God nurtures His people like a vineyard owner tends his vines. But when they turn away, He allows them to face the results of their choices.

Justice and Accountability: God expects justice but sees wrongdoing. He holds people responsible for their actions.

Rejection of God's Messengers: The people in the Gospel reject the landowner's servants and son. This points to how many rejected the prophets and Jesus Himself.

The Need for Prayer and Trust: The second reading says not to worry but to pray. Trusting God brings peace.

The Kingdom Given to Others: Jesus warns that those who reject Him will lose their place in God's plan. Others who are faithful will take their place.

Gratitude and Right Thinking: The second reading calls people to focus on what is good. This helps them live in peace and follow God's ways.

God gives every chance to do what is right. Those who listen and follow Him will be blessed.
